Austrian Peace Pact Set First After Marshall Flays Molotov

LONDON, Nov. 26 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall demanded in sharp tones today that the council of foreign ministers "get down to work and drop this business of alleging evil motives which are the figments of propaganda—not of the mind."

He was replying to a lengthy speech by Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who said aggressive and imperialist policies were developing in Europe and that Russia was opposing them.

The council dissolved in a brisk meeting a three-to-one split of yesterday by placing the Austrian treaty dominantly at the top of its agenda and promptly referring it to deputies, who are to report back to their superiors Dec. 2.

Then, in accord with Russian insistence, the council placed the preparation of the German treaty, including frontiers and procedure, second on the agenda. The minutes will bring consideration of this tomorrow.

Okays suggestion

The council approved the suggestion that the German treaty be placed at the top of the agenda, and that the Austrian treaty be placed second.

At the same time, the council placed the preparation of a German treaty, including frontiers and procedure, second on the agenda.

The meeting today was brisk, occupying but two of the three scheduled hours.

The foreign ministers of the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France are to begin German peace treaty discussions tomorrow.

Split developed

The Austrian split arose from the fact that, though the big four agreed on a six-point program, they did not agree yesterday whether to give priority to Austrian or German discussions.

It was expected that the big four would agree to place the Austrian issue first on the opening session yesterday, but this would not prevent an early start on German discussions.

Senate Rejects Attempts Of 8 Republicans to Cut Stop-Gap Aid for Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—The senate rejected today an attempt by eight Republican senators to cut $197,000,000 from the $597,000,000 European aid bill. With this vote out of the way, leaders hoped to win passage of the measure quickly and send it on to the house. The vote against cutting the fund was 56 to 30. Senator Vandenberg, R., Mich., led the fight against it and told the senate: "I know of no advantage in throwing a 15-foot rope to a man that is drowning 20 feet from the shore."

Senator Malone of Nevada offered the amendment to pending aid legislation. Joining him as co-sponsors were Senators Bricker of Ohio, Kent of Missouri, Williams of Delaware, Wilson of Iowa, Ecton of Montana, Dworshak of Idaho, and Jenner of Indiana.

Republican leaders said the effort would fail, but debate on it threatened to wreck their plans for a final vote today on the measure. Before Malone offered his amendment, Senator Wherry, R., Neb., said that "some younger senators" contemplated an effort to trim $108,000,000 from the administration's figure. That is the amount tentatively stricken out by the house foreign affairs committee.

Wherry told reporters he anticipated this attempt will fail and the senate will pass the measure "on the whole side of the capital."

On the house side of the capital, Republican leaders said they would not support the amendment. Chairman Taber, R., N.Y., said it probably will be Dec. 4 at the earliest before the appropriations committee can even consider appropriating emergency aid for France, Italy and Austria.

Taber told this to reporters after a conference with President Truman.

Taber said his committee has a rather heavy schedule the first three days of next week on regular appropriations bills. He added that even after that the committee will have to have "some justification" for the amendment.

The house foreign affairs committee also has a heavy schedule. It voted late yesterday to stop a $100,000,000 "minimum" amount of aid to France, Italy and Austria and to let the committee decide whether to let them survive through March 31.

A committee member told a reporter the bill was 10 to 1. Both Republican and Democratic members said that margin means a hot floor fight, probably early in the week. The committee also agreed to let China in on the stop-gap aid program.

The administration had mentioned that sum to be spent next spring, but apart from the emergency help for Europe.

The two big changes put the total aid to $597,000,000. The $100,000,000 "minimum" was a new statutory requirement of the committee room dejectedly shaking their heads.

Palestine Plan Gets 'Setback'

UNITED NATIONS HALL, Washington, N. Y., Nov. 26 (AP)—The Palestine plan for a Jewish state, which was approved by the United Nations general assembly last week, has been given a setback by the vote of 25 to 13 in favor of the plan.

The development threatened to leave partition five votes short of the final approval, unless its supporters succeeded overnight in rounding up additional votes.

Four of Crew Found Alive in Ship Wreck

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Nov. 26 (AP)—The coast guard reported today four of the 51 crewmen aboard the wrecked army freighter Clarksdale Victory were alive and three others were known dead on the bow of the broken vessel off Hippa Island reef.

There was no clue to the fate of the remaining 44 crewmen but an airplane was sighted a short distance from the ship wreck.

Cap. Neil Haugen, commanding the Ketchikan coast guard headquarters, said he had received a radio message from a ground party on Hippa Island that the survivors had been found on the bow.

The four men found alive were identified as:

Third Mate William M. Rasmussen, 21, Modesto, Calif.; Second Mate H. N. Wolfe, 45, Oakland, Calif.; Chief E. Driscoll, 31, officer from Los Angeles, Calif.; and an able-bodied seaman, Carlos Sana-bria, 22, of Los Ceiba, Honduras.

All four survivors were suffering from "immersion foot" and exposure, the message from the cutter C-13 said.

The identity of the three dead was not immediately determined.

Haugen said the search would continue for additional bodies and supplies to the ground party.

Wachusett proceeded to the ice side of the island to assist in bringing the survivors and bodies ashore.

Posture Said To Blame for Pain in Back

By FRANK CAREY
BALTIMORE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Your "away-back" posture and your pot belly are most likely the co-causes of that low-down pain in your back. A Diste doctor said today.

And says Dr. Eugene H. Regen of Nashville, a live-institute workout daily to strengthen abdominal and "rear-back" muscles can prevent the "vast majority" of low-back trouble cases. He also says all but about two per cent of such cases can be relieved without surgery.

Common Ailment
Declaring that pain in the lower back and down the leg is one of the commonest ailments of middle-aged and that doctors "too often" attribute it to "disturbances elsewhere in the body," the Vanderbilt university medical school surgeon said in a report prepared for the 41st meeting of the Southern Medical association.

"At about the middle twenties, our muscles start to become flabby. The physiological curves of the body having lost their normal muscular support, begin to go the way to the force of gravity, and the individual so often becomes potbellied and rounded."

"After a time in this state . . . the back can no longer resist the forces of stress and strain, and some more or less trivial injury occurs to set off a train of symptoms often referred to as lumbago and sciatica."

Based on Changes
Regen continued: "The low back and sciatic syndrome (symptom) as we commonly know it, is based on mechanical or structural changes in the lower part of the spinal column. It has nothing to do with the pelvic disease, prostate disease, focal infections in the teeth, tonsils, sinuses, gall bladder, appendix, fallopian tubes or other common sites of chronic infection. In spite of this fact, the sufficient cause is often subjected to surgery, shots (injections), and every other form of guess work."

Conservative, or non-surgical, treatment will relieve about 90 per cent of such cases, Regen asserted, suggesting such measures as employment of heat to relieve pain, and "properly graduated" program of postural exercises to correct the "away-back."

"Sadie Hawkins" Day Observed at Albion's College

SOUTHERN IDAHO COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Albion, Nov. 25 — Under "Dogshead" standards, male students here suffered immensely last week during the annual observation of "Sadie Hawkins day."

From 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. the masculine population was safe from the female horde only in their class rooms.

Precisely at 8 a. m. the boys' dormitories were invaded by the women. Some of the "luckier" men escaped only to be chased and lagged later in the day.

The event was climaxed with a dance to which all students went in "Dogshead" costumes.

To top off the festival, the girls had to act as perfect escorts, calling for the men they had caught during the day, treating them and taking them home after the dance.

All parents and friends of Scouts are invited to attend, Bellwood added.

Population Said One-Tenth Vets

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—About one out of every 10 civilians is a veteran of World War II.

A census bureau, reporting this today, estimated that there were 14,400,000 veterans of that war, including women, among the civilian population by last April 1.

Fourteen states and the District of Columbia drew more veterans as postwar residents than they gave into the services on wartime bases, the bureau said.

Expert Avers Classic Music Needs Haircut

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
CHICAGO, Nov. 26 (AP)—To coin a phrase, what classical music needs is a new look—a haircut.
Dr. Hans Rosenwald, an authority on Bach, claimed today that the so-called "long hair" has held the baton long enough.

"The public," he said, "stays away from concerts in droves because the public doesn't understand great music. Great music is a pain, understandable, highly personal experience."
Cost Too High
The public also stays away because the common man can't afford to pay $6.50 for a place to sit down and listen. For that, the professor blamed the stuffed shirts and ermines.

Rosenwald, for one, is going to do something about it. In fact, he already has.
He called together the first meeting of the Chicago foundation for music appreciation. The guest star was Edward Kilenyi, the Philadelphia pianist.

Only Way to Be Prosperous Is To Burn Cash, Othman Learns

By FREDERICK C. OTTMAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—Come with me, brave friends, to never-never land, where the more money you've got the less you have. And vice-versa. And the only way to be prosperous is to get rid of the extra cash. Don't spend it. Set a match to it.

I hope Mr. Othman, the good gray chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, won't be sore about this. But I didn't understand him better than some of the puzzled congressmen on the joint economic committee.

The lawmakers called him in to learn what they could do about the inflation that's plaguing us all. Excuse me, his torments shall be less than some of the puzzled congressmen on the joint economic committee.

He said—and I know I heard him right—that the more money the government borrows, the more the money taxpayers have to spend. This sends up prices. And if the government will pay back the money it borrowed from the banks, there will be less money for the rest of us. This lowering prices.

Kindly do not ask me why. Address your inquiries to Chairman Othman, who has made a study of these economic matters. The more he studies 'em, the gloomier he gets. Something, says he, has got to be done before business goes boom and we're adding apples to each other. Nobody who thinks differently, he feels, isn't only blind, but also foolish.

Excuse me, there is a big leather chair, at ease, spelling off for the senators and representatives all the unpleasant things he believes we should do to keep American dollars from turning into yen yen.

Excuse said easy money for high prices. Money was about the worst piece of inflation we have. He said the government must take responsibility for a large part of this lending spree. Too many people, he added, are buying too many things with nothing down and $80 a month for the next 20 years.

"You're evidently not living with your mother-in-law," remarked Senator Flanders.

"No," snapped Eccles. "And the fellow who gets stapped with a foreclosure may have to go back to living with her."

The club approved plans for the joint Lions and Rotary banquet for Rupert football players at 7:30 p. m. next Wednesday. Lions charter night has been postponed until January.

Older guests of the meeting were Carl Huntington, high school principal, Al Henschel, who is visiting in Rupert, and Ross Hunsaker, high school junior at Heyburn, guest of Frank Watson.

Postoffice Said Not Equipped to Handle Increase

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 (AP)—The postoffice department, now handling the greatest volume of mail in its history, said today it cannot handle with its present facilities a heavy increase in shipments of relief packages to war-torn countries.

Paul Aiken, second assistant postmaster general, told the senate civil service committee that heavier relief shipments abroad will require additional manpower, trucks and facilities.

The committee is studying legislation proposing to make such shipments postage free or to cut in half the present rate of 14 cents a pound on overseas packages.

Aiken said increased mail expected during the Christmas holidays and said at any rate the department will not be able to work out details required by a cut-rate service until after Jan. 1.

He testified the 400,000,000 pounds of international parcel post for the fiscal year 1947 represents an increase of 16 times the 1939 volume, and the overall volume of mail is the greatest in the department's history.

Expulsion of 19 Reds Told In New Riots

PARIS, Nov. 26 (AP)—The ministry of the interior announced today the expulsion from France of 19 Russians for "interference in French affairs" during the current labor crisis, which erupted in new violence as police and strikers battled in the streets of Lyon.

The announcement identified the Russians as members of the "Soviet patriotic union" and said they included the president, the treasurer, and two secretaries-general of the organization.

Put Across Border

The 19 were taken by bus to an unstaffed frontier and put across the border, the ministry said.

In Lyon police used tear gas to break up a strikers' march on the prefecture after a mass labor rally called by the communist-dominated general confederation of labor.

National security police inspectors swooped down on the homes of the Russians Tuesday morning and a few hours later drove them by bus to an unannounced destination, believed to be the Soviet zone of Germany.

The action came as the new government strives to end the spreading strikes in France.

"Violent Offense"

Eugene Thoma, secretary of state for communications, said the communists have "launched a violent offensive" to force Paris postal employees to strike. He said "communist elements are using intimidation and menace and trying to create an atmosphere of terror."

In Lyon, several persons were reported injured in fighting which broke out between police and the demonstrators. Eye-witnesses estimated the number of strikers participating in the demonstration at approximately 20,000.

Ma Hoskins Sneezed at Cats!

Ma Hoskins couldn't understand why she got a fit of sneezing every time Harpo, the cat, came in the room. Finally figured she'd have to get rid of Harpo altogether.

Then Doc Hollister explained she had an "allergy." Cats' fur made her sneeze like strawberries give some folks rash. He gave her an inoculation so she and Harpo could live in peace together.

I guess a lot of us have "allergies" in the social sense. Some folks just can't stand movies, or radio comedians. Other folks don't go for beer, myself. I enjoy a moderate glass of beer or two with friends... but it's up to them what beverage they choose.

From where I sit, the important thing is not to let our social allergies result in antisocial taboos. Let's not criticize the fellow who likes beer if we like cider. A little inoculation of tolerance can help us live-and-let-live happily together.

Lujack Only Unanimous Selection For All-America; Steffy Is High

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—When the 1947 All-America football team was selected, it was largely a matter of personal opinion, with a recommendation here and there. Camp and his committee had so few squads to take into consideration.

This system of selection became obsolete when major college football spread across the plains and mountains.

The All-America team of today is a consensus of the nation's coaches, scouts and football writers. They are polled. The young men getting the most votes are placed on the first team.

In this way, NEA's All-America team of 1947 was determined.

The backs are John Lujack of Notre Dame, Robert R. Chappell of Michigan, Charles Albert Conery of Mississippi and Don Walker of Southern Methodist.

The ends are William Swicki of Columbia and Paul McCloy of Southern California.

The tackles are Robert Davis of Notre Dame and Zygmunt Carobski of Notre Dame.

The guards are William Fischer of Notre Dame and Joseph B. Steffy, Jr. of Army.

Capt. Richard U. Scott of Navy is the center.

The average weight of the linemen is 208 pounds, the mobile backs 174.5. The average age is 22.

Lujack was the only unanimous choice, although Chappell, Steffy, Cleary and Fischer carried heavy pluralities.

Notre Dame is the only school to win more than one position. The Irish landing three further streaks South Bend's pre-eminent position in the college game, explains in no small measure Frank Leahy's difficulty in arranging future satisfactory schedules.

Getting right into the personnel of the first All-America football team scheduled to succeed Dick Luckman as the man down under in the Chicago Bears' modern T.

The six-foot, 180-pound, 24-year-old Bob Chappell, who matriculated from Toledo, established a new Big Nine record for total yardage gained last fall, carried an all-conquering and devastating Michigan varsity this trip.

The six-foot, one-inch, 183-pound, Charley Conery of Clarkdale, Miss., set an all-time college record for pass completions.

Conery is the equal of Alabama's Harry Gilmer as a passer, an extraordinary line-bucker and a stick-on defense, reports veteran sports editor Ed Danforth of the Atlanta Journal.

Don Walker, all the more remarkable is the fact that he is the team's only sophomore. The Dallas, Tex., five-foot-11, weighing 170 pounds and 20 years old, runs, passes, punts, starts on defense, calls signals.

At his coach, Lou Holtz, who coached him at the Alabama alumnae tremendous burst of speed. It was the

With this year's performance, Ziggy Chappell, five-foot, 110-pound, 24-year-old Chicagoan, gets the nod by far over teammate George Conery, who was the choice of the coaches.

Fischer, 20, is a Hatcher man with the advantage of size—six feet, two inches and 235 pounds—and earns the tag. Hatcher man, by being bad business for the enemy.

Notre Dame's 24-year-old, five-foot, 170-pound, 20-year-old product of Chattanooga, is exceedingly fast, a great offensive man who is all over the field on defense.

Navy's past two disastrous seasons can in no way be traced to Dick Scott. It was this six-foot, two-inch, 202-pound, 22-year-old midshipman who a year ago teamed with guard Jim Carrington and other Annapolis forwards to halt Army's supposedly untouchable Doc Blanchard in the second half.

With YOSS (The Puddy One)

The basketball season is upon you and old YOSS shouts this warning: "Watch out for the Kimberly Bulldogs! They had what looked like the best shot at the title last season and most of it is back, this time in charge of Coach Paul McCloy who made a specialty of winning championships at Accolite."

And, too, the Gooding Solons may be something of a surprise in the A Division. They'll be in charge of Elmer Edmondson, who made quite a record at Shoshone before the war.

Vandals' Star Mr. Offense in Coast League

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Vandals of the University of Idaho are Mr. Offense of the 1947 Pacific coast conference football campaign.

The 105-pound back from Spokane, Wash., wound up his eight-game year with a total of 1,148 yards in rushing, 100 yards in passing and 100 yards in punting. He is the only player in the conference to have rushed for more than 1,000 yards.

And here's something else about the approaching basketball season: An on-line circuit, confined to about six teams composed of the Magic Valley's finest players is being discussed. If formed, it will be known as the Magic Valley Major Basketball League. Oh yes, there'll be other leagues.

AND THAT'S THAT FOR NOW, except:

Corky Carlson came within an eyelash of bowling a 300 game the other night. He had 10 strikes and 100 pins left to go when he rolled his 11th ball. He was 20 pins away from a perfect game.

When Dudd Timm, now coaching at Princeton University, was playing in the state's top position, Twin Falls in the early days, he was a high school never had a losing record against it. That's what an oldtimer told the ancient word puddy.

PILOTS' WINNING PERCENTAGE BEST

Glenns Ferry Wins 8 While Losing 1 Game

The Glenns Ferry Pilots, the Magic Valley's class B 11-man champions, registered three other honors during the grueling season just closed, a survey today revealed. They won the North-Side 11-man conference, shared with Coach Paul McCloy's Kimberly Bulldogs the honor of playing the most games, 10, and also compiled the highest percentage, 88.9, as a result of eight victories one loss and one tie.

The second highest overall percentage was that of Coach George Hays' Rupert Pirates, who registered .875, while winning seven games and losing one. This record, consequently, was the best among the A teams.

Only one team among the six-man aggregation was the Fairfield Muhlers, the Magic Valley titleholders in this class. They played 10 games with one of them an 11-man affair.

Only one team emerged unbeaten, Twin Falls Cubs. They won six games and tied two in two others.

Loosing only one game was Heyburn and Paul, while Albion captured six straight after dropping the first two.

The following are the Magic Valley list of champions for the 1947 season:

CLASS B 11-MAN—Glenns Ferry.
CLASS B SIX-MAN—Fairfield.
SOUTH SIDE 11-MAN—Kimberly.
SOUTH SIDE SIX-MAN—Heyburn.
NORTH SIDE 11-MAN—Glenns Ferry.
NORTH SIDE SIX-MAN—Fairfield.

37-Pound Kamloop Trout Caught To Set up New World's Record

SANDPOINT, Nov. 26 (AP)—A new contender for the world's rainbow trout championship was hauled from lake Pend Oreille by Wes Hamlet, Coeur d'Alene, who said he caught it last on the night of the 1947 season as world's largest rainbow.

Anton Moon, Coeur d'Alene, Hamlet's fishing companion, said Hamlet caught the big fish on artificial bait at noon Tuesday only five days before the fishing season ends on that date.

Hamlet said he wrote a post card Monday to Clinton Shephard, Opportunity, Wash., who caught the record 36-pounder last May 1. The card notified Shephard that some trout he had ordered from Hamlet had arrived. Hamlet said, and carried this postscript:

"By the way, we are going fishing tomorrow, and we are going to break your record."

Hamlet said the huge fish was caught on a surface plug at the end of a 400-foot nylon line. The Kamloops broke water once and was landed after a 20-minute scrap. Hamlet said, the fish was weighed by Stan Miller at an official scale at Garfield bay, he said.

The big trout, measuring 40 and one-half inches long and 37 inches in girth, will be displayed in Coeur d'Alene Friday and will be flown to Gov. C. A. Robinson of Idaho when the season ends.

Washington Whips Los Angeles Boxer

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 26 (AP)—Buddy Washington, Ogden, battled to a 10-round decision win over Big Six for the 300-pound title. In the other feature, Frankie Montana knocked out Buddy Molina in the ninth round.

Washington had no trouble in winning his behind decision from Rocky Howe, Los Angeles, who was knocked out in a good display of fluster punches.

Washington Whips Los Angeles Boxer

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26 (AP)—Enrique Bolanos, 134, Mexico, won his ninth straight victory when he battered out a 10-round decision over half-fellow countryman, Julio Jimenez, 136, in a bloody scrap that began more than 9,000 fans in an uproar and one stage brought a shower of programs and debris from the ring at Olympic stadium.

Niemiec Named Office Pilot At Great Falls

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 26 (AP)—Richard (Dick) Bartlett, former major league infielder and last year pilot of the Sacramento club in the Pacific coast league, has been named to manage the Kansas City Blues of the American association.

SEATTLE, Nov. 26 (AP)—Al Niemiec, who gave his boss a $2,854 trimming in a court battle without losing his job as beer salesman, is back in baseball as general manager of the Great Falls, Mont., team of the Northern League. He is still working for the same man.

Niemiec was the second baseman who tested the strength of the selective service act as it pertained to baseball, winning his baseball salary and a steady job in the beer business even though he had hung up his cleats and glove.

Al was the regular center fielder for the Seattle Rainiers of the Pacific Coast league in 1939 and 1940. He went to war and when he returned was given a crack at his old job. Bill Skiff, then manager of the Rainiers, turned him down on the grounds that the trouble was Al was not catching on during that season of 1946 with the Providence-Cranston team of the New England league.

Lee and Johnny Weatherbie, who were in the military service, were in the military service, and when they returned they were in the military service.
